

Abstract of the Disclosure

A manufacturing process for tannate salt complexes of pharmaceutically active compounds includes the steps of dissolving a salt or free base of an active pharmaceutical ingredient in a pharmaceutically acceptable liquid in the presence 5 of a dispersing agent and tannic acid to form a dispersion and combining the tannate salt complex of the active pharmaceutical ingredient without isolation or purification with pharmaceutically acceptable excipients to generate a therapeutic dosage form.